You know the importance of regular maintenance. That includes your body.

Maintaining your car is a no-brainer. Maintaining your body is the same way. If you're a man 50 or older, screening can catch a problem like colorectal cancer early – and that could mean all the difference. Talk to your doctor today to get screened for colorectal cancer.

Supported by the CDC Cooperative Agreement Number U58DP000794-05. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

IDPH
Iowa Department of Public Health