

You know the importance of regular maintenance. That includes your body.

Maintaining your car is a no-brainer. Maintaining your body is the same way. If you're a man 50 or older, screening can catch a problem like colorectal cancer early – and that could mean all the difference. Talk to your doctor today to get screened for colorectal cancer.

Supported by the CDC Cooperative Agreement Number U58DP000794-05. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

