Policy

Policy from the WIC State Operations Policy and Procedure Manual – Policy 430.15 Exclusion of Confidential Participant Information
The state agency will restrict the use and disclosure of confidential applicant and participant information to persons directly connected to the administration or enforcement of the WIC Program. These persons may include, but are not limited to:
- Personnel from local agencies,
- Persons under contract with the state agency to perform research regarding the WIC program, and
- Persons investigating or prosecuting WIC Program violations under federal, state or local law.

Confidential applicant and participant information is any information, whether it is obtained from the applicant or participant, another source or generated as a result of WIC application, certification or participation, that individually identifies an applicant, participant or family member.

Public reports resulting from program and record reviews will be reviewed to assure exclusion of confidential information.

Information

Participant Centered Services:
Attainable goals should be set high enough to give the participant a feeling of accomplishment when reached but not so high that they will feel defeated if not. They need to feel encouraged, not discouraged, because of goal-setting.
Thank you of the Week:

From the AAP’s press release last week, it appears the Nation owes you a Thank you!

"The Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) food package was revised in 2009 to include a shift to low-fat milk rather than whole milk, and the addition of more fruits, vegetables and whole grains. This resulted in an improvement in the quality of the diets of low-income children, according to an April 2016 study to be published in Pediatrics. The sweeping changes to the WIC program, the first that had been made in decades, were based on recommendations by the Institute of Medicine, according to the analysis, "Revised WIC Food Package and Children's Diet Quality." In particular, the study showed significant improvement for consumption of green vegetables and beans in these children.

Johnson County Public Health
Mid-Iowa Community Action
American Home Finding
Scott County Health Department
Community Action of Southeast Iowa
Hawkeye Area Community Action Program
Hillcrest Family Services

Benefit Inquiry vs. Audit Trail
The Benefit Inquiry under Card Activities shows the family’s current benefit balance. When using the Benefit Inquiry, the Focus system looks directly in WIC Direct, the eWIC host, for real time data. Any purchases made will not show up in the Audit Trail until the next day.

Focus Tip:
There is a way to print the Family Food Benefits list without issuing or reissuing food benefits! To print a Family Food Benefits list simply open the family whose benefits list you want to print and select Card Activities from the top menu bar.

Then you can select Print Family Food Benefits from the drop down list.

The Healthy Lifestyles Conference is sponsored by the partners of the Southeast Iowa Regional Coalition for Lifestyle Enhancement.
Children who are not of a healthy weight are at risk for a variety of health problems, making early identification of weight status important. Obtaining height and weight and measuring body mass index (BMI) is the most practical method available for assessing children's growth and risk of weight-related health problems. BMI measurements are conducted for surveillance and screening purposes which enables you to identify students at risk, encourage discussions with families, and promote healthy behaviors in the school environment.

The purpose of the Conducting and Using BMI in Head Start Training is to provide Head Start Staff with the necessary information and tools to:

- Conduct standardized height and weight measurements
- Understand BMI calculations
- Use criteria for referral
- Use effective techniques, such as motivational interviewing, to communicate with parents and guardians
- Integrate Color Me Healthy curriculum into your daily routine
