Step Two – What is the renewal fee and when is it due?

The renewal fee is $120. If your initial license was issued one year or less from your renewal date there is no fee. Check or money order must be payable to the Iowa Board of Behavioral Science. Renew early to avoid a late fee or lapse in licensure. The board office strongly suggests the application and fee be mailed 30 days prior to the license expiration date.

When is the late fee due?

- A $60 late fee plus the $120 renewal fee is required on all applications received in the grace period: “Grace period” means the 30-day period following expiration of a license when the license is still considered to be active. In order to renew a license during the grace period, a licensee is required to pay the $60.00 late fee.
- Renewal applications received after the “Grace period” will not be processed. The license will automatically be placed on inactive status.
- Allow two weeks to process the paper renewal. Once approved new wallet cards will be mailed to you.

Inactive to Active License Status

- A licensee who fails to renew the license by the end of the “Grace period” has an inactive license. A licensee whose license is inactive continues to hold the privilege of licensure in Iowa, but may not engage in the practice of applied behavior analysis for which a license is required in Iowa until the license is reactivated.
- To apply for reactivation of an inactive license, a licensee shall submit a completed renewal application and proof of current certification and shall be assessed a reactivation fee as specified in 645—subrule 5.3(6).

Step Three - The following five questions must be answered.

If you answer “Yes” to any question below, (1) attach a signed letter of explanation providing the details of the incident, (2) attach a copy of any court ordered evaluations, showing completion and recommendations, and (3) attach a copy of all official court documents regarding your conviction/malpractice suit, including final disposition and/or settlement. You must answer “Yes” even when a conviction or judgment has been deferred or expunged from your record. SINCE YOUR LAST RENEWAL HAVE YOU:
