

2021 Care for Yourself Program Income Guidelines

The Care for Yourself Program provides breast and cervical cancer screening services to underserved people in Iowa. To qualify for the Care for Yourself Program, participants' net income must be at or less than 250 percent of the Federal Poverty Level as determined by the US Department of Health and Human Services. Net household income is the total pay minus deductions of each person living in the home whether or not they are related.

Persons in family or household	250% of Monthly Income	250% of Yearly Income
1	$2,683	$32,200
2	$3,629	$43,550
3	$4,575	$54,900
4	$5,521	$66,250
5	$6,467	$77,600
6	$7,413	$88,950
7	$8,358	$100,300
8	$9,304	$111,650
For each additional person, add:	$946	$11,350

*Proof of income is not required.
